

Alexandria Gazette & Daily Advertiser.

PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY SAMUEL SNOWDEN, ROYAL-STREET, ALEXANDRIA.

VOL. XIX.]

THURSDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 5, 1818.

[No. 5376.]

American Citizen. His career of glory through life was unstained by crime; and his death was felt as a loss by every individual of that community, whose political existence was the fruit of his exertions.

THE FAREWELL ADDRESS of General Washington is the condensed result of long experience, matured reflection and strong anxiety for the permanent prosperity of his country. His advice concerning the great importance of maintaining indissolubly the federal Union: the danger of indulging too much in party feelings: the necessity of supporting public credit at home: of maintaining public faith in all our transactions with foreign nations: of encouraging foreign intercourse free from foreign attachments:—are so many lessons of prudence which we should do well to bear in constant remembrance. Why therefore should not his legacy of wisdom and affection, be so published, as to admit of being constantly before our eyes? An ornament to our apartments, while it serves as a memento to guide our public feelings, and to manifest that the author lives in our memories?

To make it such, is the aim of the proposed Edition.

The Publishers are determined that the Address shall be printed on paper of the same quality and size as the splendid edition of the Declaration of Independence now engraving, & shall in all respects be a companion worthy that great State paper.

As errors are known from various causes to find their way into the most important writings, the publishers feel it their duty, not only to satisfy themselves, but to satisfy the public, of the authenticity of the copy from which this splendid Edition of the Farewell Address shall be published.

MR. GEORGE BRIDPORT will complete the Design; of which the following is an outline:—The introductory part of the Address, in highly finished ornamental penmanship, shall form the upper part;—the other parts of the plate, shall be appropriate ornaments;—in the centre below shall be engraved, from an historical design for this publication by Mr. Sully the Surrender of the British Army at Yorktown, October 19, 1781.

The Address itself shall be printed with type of a peculiar and a appropriate character, designed for this purpose by Mr. Fairman, and to be cut and cast by our best artists. No more of the type shall be cast than will be necessary to execute this Address; & when it shall be completed, the type and the matrices in which it was cast shall be utterly destroyed; so that no other work shall ever be executed by the same letter which shall have printed the "FAREWELL ADDRESS" of him who lived and died, first in War; first in Peace, and first in the hearts of his Countrymen.

The paper, of the first quality, 36 by 26 inches, will be made by Mr. Amies. The ink shall be carefully prepared, and of the best materials.

The signature of General Washington from which it is proposed to execute a fac simile for this publication, is that which he affixed to the Constitution of the United States, when he signed it as President of the Convention in which it was framed; Thus associating and concentrating some of the greatest events in the life of this great man and in the history of his Country.

The ornamental writing will be designed and executed in the very best manner; the ornamental parts of the design and vignette, will be engraved by G. FAIRMAN: and the Typographical part executed by John Binns. They will take especial care of the execution of their several duties in this respect, and they will call to their aid, all that liberality, zeal and industry can command from the Sciences and Arts, so as to make the "Farewell Address" no mean specimen of the state of the Fine Arts in the United States.

As much progress has already been made in designing and procuring materials for this splendid edition of Gen. Washington's "Farewell Address," it is expected it will be ready for delivery, with the Splendid Edition of the Declaration of Independence, in the month of December next. That the public may have a more perfect view of the design and style of execution, than can be given in a proposal, of this Tribute to the memory of him who was "a Conqueror for the Freedom of his Country! A Legislator for its Security! A Magistrate for its Happiness," it is not intended to solicit any Subscriptions until the Ornamental parts of the plate shall be executed. It will then be submitted for public inspection and public patronage, at five dollars a Copy, payable on the delivery of the Engraving. Philadelphia, July 31.

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE AND DAILY ADVERTISER.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 1818.

The following lines were written by Dr. Van Golder of New-York.

ON THE RUINS OF FORT PUTNAM.

WEST-POINT.

Dreary and lone as the scenes that surround thee,

Thy battlements rise 'mid the crags of the Yet dear are thy ruins, for brightly around thee

'Twas here the first dawn of our Liberty

But lonely's thy terrace—thy walls are forsaken,

In ruins around thy proud ramparts are

And never again shall thy cannon awaken

The echo that sleeps in thy valleys below.

Silence now reigns thy dark ruins among,

Where once thrill'd the file, and the war drum beat loud,

Now the scream of the eagle slow sailing

Alone sends its note from the mists of the cloud.

But where are the heroes whose home once was here,

When the legions of Tyranny peopled

Wine have raised the standard to Freedom so dear,

And guarded thy home 'mid the battle's

They sleep in yon vale—their rude fortress below,

Where darkly the shade of the cedar is

And lurch through the valley the mountain winds blow,

Where lowly they rest in the sleep of the dead.

The flowers of the forest have brighten'd that spot,

The wild rose has scatter'd its bloom o'er

Where lonely they lie—now forgetting—forgot—

Unawak'd by the mountain-storm thundering around.

The following toasts were drank at the Brighton Cattle Show, near Boston:

The Farmers of New-England.—May they be industrious and successful,

"For a bold yeomanry our country's pride,

"If once destroyed, can never be supplied."

Benjamin Austin, Esq. gave:—"May the citizens estimate the bounties of Heaven, by cultivating the soil—and learn, from experience, that national prosperity depends more on the basis of Agriculture and Manufactures, than on the fallacious bubbles of banking institutions."

The true economy of Agriculture—which consists in animals the most perfect for their purposes, and implements the most perfect for their ends.

Forefight in Agriculture—which consists in preparing work for all weathers, and doing all work at proper times.

The Plough Share—which doubles the fertility of a country—a better instrument of conquest than the sword, which doubles its territory.

The Farmer—light taxes—sober habits—neat and thriving wives—virtuous children—plentiful showers—warm suns, and good prices.

Turners' Wives—Kind husbands—flowing pails—and a quiet, meek and pious spirit.

Our Commercial Friends—Generous prices to the farmer, their best customer;— great profits abroad, liberal discounts and unquestionable credit at home.

Manufactures—Ready invention, quick returns, and successful competition in quality and profit.

GEORGE WASHINGTON.—The memory of this distinguished Farmer and illustrious Citizen, shall never be forgotten.

FARMING TO SOME PURPOSE.

A gentleman of Frederick county, Maryland, a few days since sold his crop of wheat for the present year, for the handsome sum of $9,120 dollars! The same gentleman will make from twenty to thirty hogsheads of prime tobacco, which is now selling in Baltimore at from 23 to 24 dollars per cwt. This is cultivating the soil to more advantage than the raising of pumpkins, &c. about which so much is said of late.

GOOD ADVICE.

Quit your pillow, and go about your bu-ness, if you have any—it is the first injunction: if not, seek some. Let the sun's beams shine on your head in the morning, and you shall not want a good hat to defend yourself against its scorching rays at noon.—

Earn your breakfast before you eat it, and the sheriff shall not deprive you of your super. Pursue your calling with diligence, and your creditor shall not interrupt you.

Be temperate, and thy physician shall look in vain for your name in his day book. If you have a small farm, or a trade that will support your family and add a hundred dollars a year to your capital, be contented, and never go to Boston to buy land in Georgia, that is to be made on the eighth day of creation.

ALEXANDRIA: THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 1818.

The following gentlemen were elected directors of the Fire Insurance Company, on Monday, for the ensuing year.

Hugh Smith John Richards

C. P. Thompson John Keith, Jr.

Thos. Lawson A. C. Crozer

Robt. I. Taylor Wm. Bartleman

D. Metcalf Thomas Janney

Jacob Morgan, was unanimously re-lected President, and James B. Nickolls, Secretary.

At an election held on the 2d inst. for directors of the Bank of Potomac, the following gentlemen were elected.

James Keith, Jr. President.

Phineas Janney Robt. I. Taylor

Hugh Smith Charles Bennett

Jacob Hoffman Samuel Mark

C. P. Thompson John G. Ladd

Wm. Bartleman Thomas Irwin

John Roberts John Richards

On Tuesday night, about 9 o'clock, a fire broke out in the back part of the dwelling-house occupied by Mrs. Earl, in King-st.

Owing to the timely interference of the citizens, it was extinguished before any material damage was done. And yesterday, at 1 P. M. a fire originated in a stable belonging to N. Keene, Esq. in Columbus-st. which was entirely consumed. Although the building was surrounded by numerous frame and brick tenements, yet the activity of the citizens, and in particular the alertness of the firemen, happily prevented the fire from communicating to them, or doing them any injury. The general belief is, that in both instances the fire was communicated by incendiaries.

Messrs. John Forsyth, William Terrell,

John A. Cuthbert, Joel Crawford, Thomas

W. Cobb and Joel Abbot, have been returned as our Representatives to Congress.

To those gentlemen there was no opposition, but we have noticed that among the scattering votes, R. H. Wilder, Esq. obtained

COTTON CROPS.

A letter from New-Orleans, dated 28th

September, to a mercantile house in Savannah, says, "the new crop of cotton will be extensive, and of good quality—uncertain at what price it will open."

[Charleston Courier.]

Capt. Mitchell, of the schr. Eagle, in 15 days from Cape Henry, (Hayti) who arrived at Newburyport on the 27th inst. reports that in consequence of the citadel being blown up, and the men from the Cape and from all the plantations, (both rich and poor) being ordered to rebuild the same, the produce of the island is at present excessively scarce and high, and will probably continue so for some time. Prices at present, as follows—coffee 25 dols. per cwt; sugars, 9 a 10; molasses, 40 cts; cocoa, 10 dols. per cwt.

FROM HALIFAX.

We last evening received of Mr. Jack, of the Exchange Coffee House, Halifax papers of the 16th inst. with English dates to 6th September.

At the last accounts from Aix-la-Chapelle, the ministers from the different powers were assembling at that place.

It is said the Pope has indicated a disposition to support his Most Catholic Majesty in his present exigencies, with pecuniary aid. [Boston Patriot, Oct. 30.]

LONDON CORN EXCHANGE, September 7.

There was a large supply of new English wheat this morning, which experienced a dull sale at a reduction of 4 to 5 p. qr.

since last Monday; and foreign wheat declined in the same proportion.

CENTS.

For the accommodation of the public, cents, to any moderate amount, will continue to be delivered, for some time, at the Mint, in Philadelphia, in exchange for an equal amount in specie, or paper receivable in the Bank of the United States.

FROM CAPE HENRY.

Capt. Mitchell, who arrived at Newburyport on Thursday last, in 15 days from Cape Henry, states, that "the two rival chiefs, so far from being engaged in hostilities, were each improving their respective dominions. Christophe was busily engaged, with his subjects and soldiers, in repairing the citadel at Sans Souci, lately destroyed by lightning—while Boyer was for-tying himself in the affections of his people, by ameliorating their conditions, and making improvements in agriculture and domestic arts." [N. York Com. Adv.]

FROM FRANCE.

Capt. Hall, of the ship Comet, sailed from Havre-de-Grace on the 11th September. At that date, no political news of importance had transpired. There had been no change in the cotton market. Rice was selling at sixty francs; coffee was at two francs, and declining. The Comet has brought out about $50,000 dollars in specie, for the Bank of the U. States—mostly in five franc pieces.

Mayor's Court, City of Philadelphia.

Commonwealth vs. Misdeameor:

John M'Dowell, } vs.

The above Defendant was convicted for indecently exposing his person in the streets of this city. It appeared that he had been in the habit of doing it for upwards of two years, but had not been detected by any person who would come forward to prosecute, until the present instance, as the habit had been exercised only in the presence of females.

He was sentenced to imprisonment at hard labor for one year by the court.

GENERAL CARRERA'S BROTHERS.

We have seen a Proclamation of M. Luzuriga, the Governor of the Province of Cuyo, one of the United Provinces of La Plata, dated at Mendoza, the 9th April, 1818, explaining the causes which produ-ceded the trial and execution of these unhappy young gentlemen. This document completely exculpates Puerrydon from any concern or share in their execution.

It states, as a fact fully ascertained and proven, that the Carreras had planned a conspiracy, the object of which was to seize upon the government of Cuyo, and to put to death the governor and several other persons in authority. Upon these charges they were brought to trial, and convicted on the 7th of April. It was the wish of the governor Luzziaga to postpone their fate until the sentence could be transmitted to Buenos Ayres, for the purpose of obtaining the determination of the Supreme Director, Puerrydon; but, such was the state of the public mind at Cuyo, just before the victory of Maipu was known there, that the judges before whom the trial took place, pressed their immediate execution, as a measure of precaution and necessity. They were accordingly executed on the 8th, the day after their trial—a fact which, of itself, is sufficient to acquit M. Puerrydon of any approach to this capital a few stages in advance.

May God preserve you many years.
The Department of State, May 30, 1818.
ANTONIO JOSE DE IREARRI, Secretary of State.
To Captain James Biddle, commanding the U. S. corvette the Ontario, in the waters of Valparaiso.
The army of Chili were in Jane in the neighborhood of Salta—the royal force was on the frontier of Peru.
Capt. Biddle, in the Ontario, had sailed for the mouth of the Columbia river, on the N. W. coast; and a British ship of war, commanded by Capt. Hickley, followed the Ontario soon after, on board of which, Mr. Prevost, agent of the United States, also accompanied a passenger. It was understood that the British officer was authorized to formally abandon all claims to territory or settlement in that quarter, to which some settlers and adventurers there had previously set up pretensions, which threatened unpleasant consequences—but which are thus likely to be terminated amicably.
CONSTANTINOPLE.
The following spirited and fine description of the manners, characters and customs of Constantinople, is from Neal's Travels.
It would be difficult for any imagination, even the most romantic or disordered, to associate in close array all the incongruous and discordant objects which may be contemplated, even within a few hours perambulation, in and around the Turkish capital. The barbarous extreme of magnificence, and wretchedness, of power and weakness, of turpitude and magnanimity, of profligacy and sanctity, of cruelty and humanity, are all to be seen jumbled together in the most sublime or offensive combinations of nature, crowded with all the grandeur of human art, contrasted with the atrocious effects of unrestrained sensuality, and brutalizing inherent degeneracy, fill up the vacant spaces of this varied picture.
The howling of ten thousand dogs reaching through the deserted streets all the live long night, chase you betimes from your pillow; approaching your window, you are greeted by the rays of the rising sun, gilding the snowy summits of mount Olympus, and the beautiful shores of the sea of Marmora, the point of Chalcidion, and the town of Scutari; midway your eyes ranges with delight over the marble domes of St. Sophia, the gilded pinnacles of the seraglio glittering amidst groves of perpetual verdure, the long arcades of ancient aqueducts, and spire minarets of a thousand mosques. While you contemplate this superb scenery the thunders of artillery burst upon your ear; and, directing your eye to the quarter whence the sound proceeds, you may behold, proudly sailing around the point of the seraglio the splendid navy of the Ottomans, returning with the annual tribute of Egypt. The curling volumes of smoke ascending from the port holes, play around the belling sails, and hide at times, the ensigns of crimson silk, bespangled with the silvery crescent of Mahomet! The hoarse guttural sounds of a Turk selling kaimac at your door, recal your attention towards the miserable lanes of Pera, wet, splashy, dark and disgusting,—the mouldering wooden tenements beetling over the alleys, are the abode of pestilence and misery. You may mount your horse, and betake you to the fields, rich with the purple of health and lavender, and swarmed with myriads of honied insects; in the midst of your progress your horse recoils from his path, at the loathsome object occupying the centre of the highway, an expiring horse, from which a horde of famished dogs are already tearing the reeking entrails. Would you behold his unfeeling master, look beneath that accacia at the hoary Turk performing his pious ablutions at the sacred fountain! If we retrace our steps, we are met by a party passing at a quick pace towards that cemetery on the right; they are carrying on a bier the dead body of a Greek, the palid beauty of whose countenance is contrasted with the freshness of the roses which compose the chaplet of the head. A few hours only has he ceased to breathe: but see! the grave has already received his corpse, and amidst the desolate palaces of the earth, he has entered an obscure and nameless tenement.
Having returned to the city, you are appalled by a crowd of revellers pressing around the door of a wine house; the sounds of minstrelsy and riot are within. You have scarcely passed, when you behold a baker's shop; the Kamaiken has been his rounds, the weights have been found deficient, and the unfortunate man who swings in a halter at the door, has paid for his petty villany, the forfeiture of his life. The populace around murmur at the price of bread, but the minarets from the adjoining minarets are proclaiming the hour of prayer, and the followers of Mahomet are pouring in to count their beads, and proclaim the efficacy of faith. In an opposite coffee-house, a group of Turkish soldiers, drowsy with tobacco, are dreaming over the chess-board, or listening to the licentious fairy tales of a dervise. The passing crowd seem to have no common sympathies, jostling each other in silence on the narrow foot-path; women veiled in long calan emirs, with green turbans, Janissaries, Bostandis, Jews and Armenians, encounter Greeks, Albanians, Tartars and Franks. Fatigued with such pagantry, you observe the shades of evening descend, and again sigh for repose: but the pavement, excited your attention to the cries of yaglar, var from the top of the adjoining tower, and you are told that the flames are in the next street. There you may behold the devouring element overwhelming in a common ruin the property of infidels or true believers, till the shouts of the multitude announce the approach of the arch despot, and the power of a golden shower of sequins is exemplified in awakening the calous feelings of even a Turk! multitude, to the sufferings of their fellow creatures, and of rendering them sensible to the common ties of humanity. The fire is extinguished—and darkness of a deeper hue has succeeded to the glare of the flames: the retiring crowd, guided by their paper lanterns, flit by thousands like ignis fatui, amidst the cypresses of the Chump des Morts; and like another Mirza, after your sublime vision, you are left, not indeed, to contemplate the lowering of the oxen in the valley of Bagdad, but to encounter the gloom and cheerless solitude of your own apartment.

A fine Green Turtle, received per sloop Ocean, from Norfolk, will be dressed on FRIDAY. Soup ready for delivery at 12 o'clock. T. SHIELDS.

BY virtue of an order from the Orphan's Court of Charles county, the subscribers will sell on the 11th day of November next, all the real and personal estate of Philip Edelen, late of Charles county deceased, consisting of one farm lying near Bryan Town: this land is so valuable and so generally known, that a description of it here is deemed unnecessary. It contains about 400 acres, and will be sold on the following terms, to wit: one third of the purchase money must be paid on the day of sale; the remaining two thirds must be paid in two equal payments, one at twelve months after the day of sale, and the other in two years; the purchaser giving bond, with approved security, bearing interest from the day of sale. The personal estate is also valuable, and consists of stock of every description of superior quality; also of household and kitchen furniture, the crop now on the land, and many other articles too tedious here to enumerate. Valuable Land for Sale.
HAVING more land in the tract on which I reside than I can farm to advantage, I will expose to public sale, on the 5th day of NOVEMBER next, if fair, if not the next fair day, eight hundred acres, divided into lots of two hundred acres; each lot has seventy acres in wood—of the cleared land one hundred and fifty acres are in clover, and two hundred in rye and wheat. This land is situated ten miles below Alexandria, and is bounded north and east by Accotink creek, which separates the lower part of it from Jonathan Janney's mill, where the Alexandria price any land in the county, and is as fertile as any land I have seen. Persons wishing to view it will call on the subscriber, living at Cedar Grove, one mile below Janney's mill.

The terms will be one-third of the purchase money in hand, and the balance in two equal annual payments. The sale will take place at 12 o'clock, on the premises.

Gleanings for Sale.
THIS elegant estate is situated on the Potomac, 18 miles below Alexandria —it is bounded on three sides by the Potomac and Potomac creek, and contains nearly 3,000 acres of land, level and fertile, to which are attached six shad and herring fisheries, two of which command the river channel. This land will be laid off in four tracts, so as to have one or more fisheries to each; these tracts will be again divided if requisite. This estate is level and beautifully situated, very fertile, and remarkably healthy. Plaster acts with an effect equal to that of any part of Virginia or Pennsylvania. I have used 500 bushels in twelve months, and such is its beneficial operation, that were I to keep this land I should considerably increase the quantity.
A manufacturing mill is distant about two miles; on a stream navigable for vessels carrying 1200 bushels of wheat, where the Baltimore and Dist. of Columbia prices are given for grain: being bounded on 3 sides by water, a small extent only of fence is necessary to inclose the whole: it would be admirably adapted to grazing. The improvements are a large and very substantial brick mansion, 40 by 70 feet, with every necessary outhouse, three commodious barns, houses for Negroes, and fish wharfs at each of the fisheries. 120,000 bricks and 1000 bushels of lime are just burnt on the premises. There is a considerable extent of live fence, both well selected and planted, besides an abundance of other choice fruit.
More than 150 acres are in clover, 200 in corn, and land is in preparation for sowing 250 bushels of small grain. Any quantity of hay can be cut from the low grounds, some of which (and all might,) have been reclaimed at a trifling expense. The river and creeks, abound with wild fowl, particularly canvas backs, the woods with deer and a variety of other game. Mules, cattle, highly improved sheep, farming utensils and household furniture can be had.
The terms of sale will be accommodating.
Property in any of the cities, negroes, bank stock, western lands, or lands near the Ridge, will be taken in payment.—Letters must be addressed to me at Pollock Church, Fairfax county, Virginia.
September 4. GEORGE MASON.

Valuable Property for Sale.
THE subscriber is desirous of selling a handsomely situated farm, on Hunting creek, in Fairfax county Virginia, adjoining the Mount Vernon estate and the lands of general Thomson Mason, four miles from Alexandria, containing about 240 acres, 80 of which are in wood—40 to 50 in thriving meadow of clover and timothy—a part of the residue recently seeded with wheat and rye, and clover, last spring—the whole enclosed with a new post and rail fence.— The improvements are, a comfortable and convenient frame dwelling house and kitchen, smoke house, poultry house, granary and stables.—There is on this place a rich and productive garden, and a large body of marsh meadow, from which may be saved annually 100 tons of hay, nearly as nutritious as the best timothy or clover.—With the farm would be sold a number of very valuable horses, cows and sheep; waggons, carts, and a variety of farming utensils and household and kitchen furniture; corn, oats and rye, and 40 tons hay. Also, adjoining the one above described, a farm containing 160 acres, recently enclosed, on which is a brick house, which a trifling expense would render comfortable.
The soil is excellent, and a considerable part might be easily converted into meadow—it would be sold with the other or separately. Also, a number of valuable servants, male and female. To prevent unnecessary application, he would observe, that they will only be sold to persons residing in the District or its vicinity, and not to be carried from it. The subscriber will also sell the greater part of his household furniture, which is new and beautiful. For terms of all or any part of the above property, apply to NORLET HER-BERT, esq. or

A YELLOW WOMAN, called Celia A Detcher, in the 23d year of her age, about 5 feet 2 or 3 inches high—marks like mole on the right side of her face, which, with several letters on her left arm, were made with india ink. She is about four months gone in a state of pregnancy—followed her husband, Jim Clark, a yellow man, who was purchased from this place and taken away in company with a large number of slaves, about two week ago, by a man of the name of Basset. It is supposed they have gone to the westward: Celia was born free, and had with her a notarial certificate of her freedom, and description of her person. Her mother, the subscriber, is much afflicted by her manner of going away, and desires that any humane people who may chance to meet with her, will persuade her to return, being apprehensive that when she gets into a strange country, where she will be unknown and out of the reach of her friends and those who would be likely to protect her, attempts may be made by some avaricious and unprincipled persons, to deprive her of her liberty, and sell her for a slave. Should any such attempts be made, fifty dollars reward will be paid to any person who will communicate such information as shall lead to the conviction of the offenders, and the recovery of the woman.
